

John McClean

Lecturer in Systematic Theology, Presbyterian Theological Centre.

John has a BSc (UNSW, 1988) and BD Hons (Moore Theological College, 1996). He is in the last stages of a PhD on the "anticipation in the thought of Wolfhart Pannenberg" (Melbourne College of Divinity).

John teaches in the area of Christian Thought, and teaches units in Systematic Theology, Philosophy, Christian Worldview, Ethics and Biblical Theology of Mission. He was minister of Minister in Cowra Presbyterian Church (1995-2002), a visiting lecturer at PTC in 1994 and completed the Ministry Training Scheme at St Matthias Anglican Church (1988-1991). He is married to Elizabeth and they have two children.

He has been the convener of four ministry conference at PTC: Reaching the Bush (2004), From Every Nation (2005), Broken Reeds (2006) and Growing Strong (2008).

He is convenor of the 21C Organising Committee and convenor of the GAA Women's Ministry Committee and a member of the Federal Christian Education Committee of the PCA and of the Metro committee of PCNSW.

He is Book Reviews Editor of the online journal Crucible and scanner for Diploma Philosophy and Ethics subjects for the Australian Theological College.

His publications include:

He has presented papers

"A place for eschatology? Where is the weight in salvation history?" at Australian Institute of Ministry Conference Mar 03;
"Inter-relationalism and the need for human communities in ethical reflection" CASE conference Nov 04;

He has published articles on

The Lord's Supper (Feb 07) and a Christian View of Gender (Mar 07) in the Australian Presbyterian (Feb-Mar 07).