

Ian K. Smith

Vice Principal and Academic Dean, Presbyterian Theological Centre

Ian holds the degrees of PhD (University of Sydney, 2003), MTh (Australian College of Theology, 1994), MEd Hons (University of New England, 1991), BTh Hons (Australian College of Theology, 1984), BA (University of Sydney, 1978), Diploma of Education (Sydney Teachers' College, 1979).

Ian teaches and supervises research in the area of Bible, with particular interest in the New Testament. Prior to his appointment to the PTC in 1995, he was a lecturer and the Dean of Studies at the Talua Ministry Training Centre, Vanuatu from 1989-1994. From 1985-1989 Ian was the minister of Griffith Presbyterian Church. From 1979-1981, Ian was a high school teacher of French, Indonesian and English.

Ian is the Head of the Department of Bible and Languages for the Australian College of Theology. He is a member of several Australian College of Theology boards. He is also a member of the College Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Australia.

Ian preaches and speaks regularly at many churches and conferences, both in Australia and overseas.

His publications include:

“Does 2 Corinthians 5:1-8 refer to an Intermediate State?” Reformed Theological Review 55 (1996) 14-23;

Heavenly Perspective: A Study of the Apostle Paul's Response to a Jewish Mystical Movement at Colossae LNTS (JSNTS) 326, (London: T & T Clark, 2006);

“Passion and Resurrection Narratives”, in Content and Setting of the Gospel Traditions (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 2009 – forthcoming).

Ian has also written several book reviews for Reformed Theological Review and several articles for Australian Presbyterian and other non-refereed journals.